

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE:

NEW SINGLE & VIDEO “REACHING FOR THE TOP” BY NARNIA

Uppsala, Sweden. June 3, 2016

Narnia is finally back for the metal attack. Celebrating 20 years as a band, they are back with a brand new studio album, scheduled for worldwide release on September 16, 2016. To follow up the new album they plan to visit as many countries as possible, to meet new and old fans.

Today (June 3rd, 2016), the first single “Reaching For The Top”, taken from the upcoming 7th studio album entitled “Narnia”, hits the market, together with a promo video produced by Mats Vassford (Grand Design & 220 Volt).

On the new self-titled 2016 album Narnia re-visits their melodic roots but with an updated sound, creating a perfect blend; a powerful production by CJ Grimmark, mixed and mastered by Thomas “Plec” Johansson.

The Lineup 2016:

Christian Liljegren – Vocals
CJ Grimmark – Guitars, keyboards & backing vocals
Andreas “Habo” Johansson – Drums
Martin Härenstam – Keyboards
Andreas Passmark – Bass

During the years Narnia has been established as one of the leading forces in melodic, neoclassical metal, with a strong reputation of being a great live act that always delivers. And so it continues... The fans are asking for more and the band is hungrier than ever.

The new, self-titled full length album will be released, worldwide, on CD, Vinyl LP and on digital formats, on September 16, 2016.

The band is excited about the future and eager to unveil a new chapter.

Enjoy the new song “Reaching For The Top”, and follow the band on their brand new website: Narniatheband.com, and on social media channels.
